

THE THREATS ARE REAL. SO IS THE PROPHETIC RESPONSE.

Screens, pornography, substances, identity confusion, anxiety and doubt reach Muslim teenagers earlier and harder than ever. In this second volume, Imam Ayman Al-Taher names these threats plainly and explains, as a clinician, how they take hold of a young mind.

He then sets out the Prophetic response: how the Messenger of Allah ﷺ guided young people with mercy, firmness and trust, and how parents, imams and communities can apply that model today.

WHAT CLIENTS ARE SAYING

"He has taken a non-traditional approach that still remains grounded in Islamic values and our way of life... He listens with intention, creates a space that feels safe and balanced for both of us, and encourages empathy in a way that feels practical and deeply respectful."

"His approach is calm, clear, and compassionate, and always rooted in what will benefit the marriage, not just the individual."

"He combines his excellent grasp of the subject matter with a high level of empathy, kindness, trustworthiness and respect for his clientele."

For every adult who wants to protect young people without pushing them away, this book offers faith-aligned, clinically grounded strategies that work in real homes and real masjid.
