

AN ENDING IS NOT THE END OF YOUR STORY.

Divorce is permitted in Islam, yet it is often lived in silence and shame. Imam Ayman Al-Taher addresses family dissolution with the care of a clinician and the clarity of an imam: the Islamic framework, the emotional reality, and the impact on children.

From the decision itself to co-parenting and rebuilding, this volume guides individuals and families through grief toward healing, dignity and renewed faith.

WHAT CLIENTS ARE SAYING

"He has taken a non-traditional approach that still remains grounded in Islamic values and our way of life... He listens with intention, creates a space that feels safe and balanced for both of us, and encourages empathy in a way that feels practical and deeply respectful."

"His approach is calm, clear, and compassionate, and always rooted in what will benefit the marriage, not just the individual."

"He combines his excellent grasp of the subject matter with a high level of empathy, kindness, trustworthiness and respect for his clientele."

A faith-aligned, clinically grounded companion for anyone walking through divorce, and for the families and imams who support them.
